(heimatBEWEGEN e. V.)

Opening

since ~ 2020

Initial Situation

- Historic manor estate with partly heavily damaged building fabric
- Parts of the buildings no longer usable (e.g. roofs, barns)
- Vacancies & low levels of use in the surrounding old town area
- Need for spaces for community, creativity & exchange
- Goal to preserve & revitalise historic heritage

Reuse Strategy

Strategy: gradual transformation of a manor estate into a multifunctional place with an open offer for different user groups

Combination of:

- Workshops (e.g. woodwork, creative activities)
- Events & cultural formats
- Accommodation (hostel)
- Community spaces & garden

Character: community-oriented, experimental, process-based

Objectives

- Reactivation of a historic existing building
- Creation of an open place for meeting & co-creation
- Promotion of culture, education & craft-based activities
- Strengthening of community & regional development

Operational Concept

- Operated by a non-profit association
- Strong involvement of volunteers & local initiatives
- Use by various groups (culture, education, events)

Key Actors

- Main Operator: heimatBEWEGEN e. V. (concept, development, operation)
- Support: network of local & regional stakeholders
- Users: local population, initiatives, cultural & educational actors

Key Features of the Project

- Transformation of a historic manor estate over several years
- Combination of physical renovation & social activation
- High level of self-initiative & community engagement
- Integration of culture, craft & community in one place

Transferability

What makes this example particularly instructive?

- Shows the long-term transformation of a large building ensemble
- Demonstrates the role of civil society initiatives
- Combines physical development with social use

Who is this model suitable for?

- Municipalities with larger historic vacant properties
- Initiatives focusing on community & culture
- Projects with a long-term development perspective
